FANUC Nordic AB
Djurhagegatan 10
S-21376 Malmö

FANUC ACADEMY

Web: www.fanuc.se
Tel.: +46 8 505 80 700
academy@fanuc.se

FA Courses

Accessing the PMC: FANUC Ladder-III

In this course, you will learn how to use FANUC Ladder-III; setting parameters to access the PMC, quality-of-life settings, troubleshooting, and PMC programming. The course covers an introduction to PMC, usage of PMC via CNC screens and usage of PMC via FANUC Ladder-III.

Target group	Electricians, programmers and maintenance technicians.
Objectives	After completed course the participant should be able to: • Show a deepened knowledge in FANUC PMC by utilizing its features. • Set parameters in order to access the PMC. • Basic usage of PMC via CNC screens and FANUC Ladder-III
Course Content	• Introduction: PMC overview, history, and purpose • Accessing the PMC: maintenance, configuration and Ladder screen • Setup and Usage of FANUC Ladder-III • Setup connection with PMC • Editing a program • Setting I/O Module (I/O Link) • Setup Data Tables
Pre-requisites	Understanding of electrical systems, safety and basic maintenance techniques. Participants need to bring a computer with FANUC Ladder-III installed.
Language	Courses are presented in local language when appropriate (Swedish, Danish, Finnish) - otherwise courses are held in English. Course material is in English.
Location	FANUC office in Sweden (Malmö or Sollentuna) or Finland (Vantaa).
Duration and dates	Course duration: 2 days. Please check scheduled dates on our website.
Training materials	• Printed training material. • Useful PDF manuals.
Additional information	The customer is also expected to arrange their own transport, hotel and evening meals for the duration of their training. Lunch included each full day of the course.

Book your course through our website: www.fanuc-academy.se or send your booking request to academy@fanuc.se.

No discounts or free training places are available unless previously discussed with the customer service manager.

FANUC